INTRODUCTION AND DEDICATION

This, our sixth edition of the Chelmsford yearbook, is dedicated to the belief that the best educational environment is that which promotes discussion; that the ultimate end of formal education is the beginning of independent thought; and that the development of an ability to learn is the real benefit of these, the all important early days of a never ending search. .

Sincères félicitations à tous ceux et celles qui ont contribué à la rédaction de ce merveilleux livre-souvenir. Vous ne pouvez vous imaginer jusqu'à quel point vous aimerez le feuilleter dans quelques années. Il vous rappellera des moments mémorables ainsi que des souvenirs bien chers.

Dans ce siècle moderne, appelé le siècle de la vitesse, tout change de façon fulgurante. Ce qu'on a appris hier ne fait plus aujourd'hui et il semble que ce qu'on apprend aujourd'hui sera "vieux jeu" demain.

Le rôle de l'école devient donc de plus en plus compliqué et nos diplômés doivent être capables de s'adapter à une société continuellement changeante et qui se matérialise de plus en plus. Cependant, il ne s'agit pas seulement de découvrir ce qu'il faut faire, mais aussi de le mettre en pratique.

Vous bâtissez aujourd'hui ce que vous serez demain. Il s'agit donc, pour vous tous, d'acquérir des principes de base et de réaliser que certains de ces principes sont tellement importants et que sans eux, plaisirs, argent, aisance, et soif de l'inconnu ne valent rien.

Tout étudiant qui ne découvrira pas, pour lui-même, la grande valeur de tels principes de base sera non seulement déçu de lui-même mais il pourra difficilement jouer son rôle au sein de la société dans les années à venir.

I am glad to have this opportunity of expressing my sincere congratulations to those dedicated individuals who have had the task of collecting and sorting material for this Treasure Book of school events.

In this modern era, where industry approaches a stage of mechanization which has already been labelled automation, the proportion level, or close to it, rises rapidly. Therefore, the function of our school is becoming more complex every year and our graduates must be capable of adapting themselves to an ever-changing world. It is not enough, however simple, to see what should be done! We must also do it.

The aims of school, today and every day, are not only preparation for life's work but are trying to give to students the opportunity of setting values for themselves and of discovering that some values are so important that, beside them, discomfort, inconvenience, loss, and danger fade into insignificance.

Any student, who will fail to discover some such high values for himself will not only be a disappointment to himself as well as others, but his value as a citizen in the days to come will be practically nil.

VICE-PRINCIPALS

On se souviendra de l'année 1968-1969 comme l'année de transition.

Le rapport "Hall-Dennis", VIVRE ET S'INSTRUIRE, prend son essor et menace de révolutionner le système scolaire en Ontario.

L'éducation sera orientée en fonction de l'individu et non du sujet; on prêche non la conformité d'une école à l'autre mais la diversité; l'élève pourra choisir d'apprendre ce qui l'intéresse et non pas nécessairement à fin pratique.

Pourquoi tous ces changements? Les changements dans la société telle que l'automation réduisent les heures de travail et éliminent le labeur manuel; l'élève de demain vivra dans un monde très différent de celui de notre génération.

Il s'agit d'éduquer en fonction de ces changements; il faut développer chez l'individu un sens de responsabilité personnelle; on doit reconnaître la curiosité naturelle et l'initiative personnelle de l'individu.

Considérez pour un moment certaines philosophies de l'éducation des premiers temps.

Le but d'une éducation selon Socrate est d'éliminer l'erreur et de découvrir la vérité; selon William J. Harris, l'Education est la préparation de l'individu vers l'union réciproque avec la société pour qu'il puisse aider son prochain et en retour recevoir son aide.

Quelle que soit la bonne philosophie de l'éducation, aucune philosophie ne se réalise sans la participation active de l'individu dans un système scolaire.

Oui, membres de l'album-souvenir, vous méritez de chaleureux applaudissements pour vos efforts manifestés dans la publication de cet album; nul ne vous blâmera si vous en gardez une satisfaction personnelle; ce memento sera un guide pour d'autres élèves qui désireront tirer le plus grand profit possible de leurs années scolaires.

Il s'agit de développer un sens de responsabilité et d'accomplissement.

From a school of fewer than six hundred students in 1962, Chelmsford Composite has doubled its student body and increased its teaching staff almost threefold in the short space of seven years.

Of course during the past year we all have the pinch of crowded conditions at the school and for the senior students and some of our teaching staff we are inclined to look back five or six years to the "good old days" when we had some elbow room in the hallways and leg room in the classrooms. What was it like a half dozen years ago at the school other having more space! Let me recapture a few choice items!

The student leadership of our young school was provided more by the grade thirteen students than it is to-day, where the current trend is for the students of the lower grades to grab hold of the student council reins. This is probably indicative of the general picture in other facets of our lives. Look at our young Prime Minister--a swinging forty-nine!

In my own subject field, I recall students were only too eager to ply me with live rats, snakes and turtles which we kept around the laboratory in boxes. One morning a thirtyfive pound snapping turtle got loose in the Biology lab and twenty grade ten students fled into the hallway. This incident was followed a few days later by a deluge of water from all the sink taps and fifteen soaked students from the same class headed for the change rooms. Such were the beginnings of a new school and the inexperienced teacher--me!

During the intervening years our school has been beset by a strike, a freak tornado and a persistent leaky roof which has baffled our best engineering brains. We at least always know that when the steady water drops start in the gym and hallways, Spring has arrived.

May I close off memory lane by thanking our 1969 student body for their courtesy and cooperation during the past term. For those who are graduating --best wishes in your chosen vocation and thank you for your contribution in making Chelmsford a school to be proud of.

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

If man is to live in this upheaval, then man needs reformation; we cannot change the times but we can modify ourselves. We must search deep within our conscience to find an answer to end the Vietnam war or the Israel-Arab dispute in such a way that all are satisfied and peace will reign. But to be satisfied will mean to bend, and to bend will mean an end of egoistical wants and ability to understand one another and try to reach out to help. John F. Kennedy said "Ask not what your country can do for you, but what you can do for your country." Expanding this thought: Ask not what society can do for you but what you can do for society. Use your ability and capacities of friendship, understanding and good will to help your neighbour and thus you are on your way to reforming man's faults. Make a model life and home for yourself out of this chaotic world. However our present generation is too belligerent and non-conformist. This is what all of us call the "generation gap". This reformation must start in our youths so it will from then on always be in action in years to come.

L'album-Souvenir 1968-1969 est le symbole de l'étroite et agréable collaboration de tous se dévouant à une tâche commune. C'est aussi le symbole d'un esprit qui n'a pas connu de démenti tout au cours de l'année.

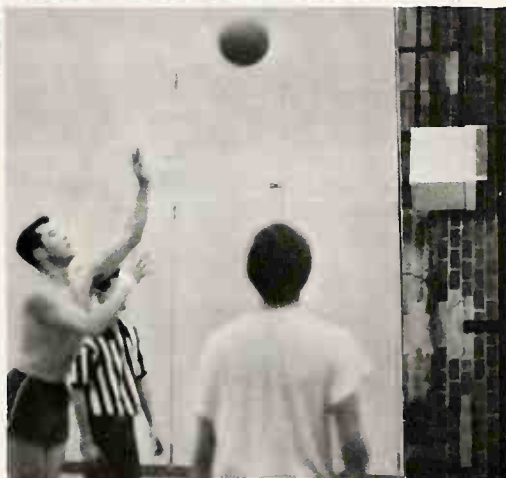

L'album-Souvenir est donc la projection d'initiatives et d'événements heureux rendus possibles par l'entraide et l'amitié; ce sont les bases d'une maturité profonde.

Nous les jeunes Franco-ontariens, avons un grand besoin de trouver, de définir notre identité nationale. Français d'origine, nous vivons dans une province à majorité anglophone, une province fortement influencée par la civilisation américaine. Quel type d'homme, de Canadien incarnons-nous? Souvent, j'ai l'impression qu'il existe en nous de paradoxales contradictions. Finirons-nous par résoudre ces antinomies? J'ose l'espérer sans pour autant en être tout à fait rassuré.

Vous trouverez en nous beaucoup de générosité, une droiture et un dynamisme capables d'engendrer de grands efforts. Cependant, l'idéal que nous nous proposons et l'avenir que nous préparons exigeront de l'héroïsme. Pouvons-nous trouver dans nos cœurs la force de conviction qui incarne l'enseignement en français dans les écoles primaires, secondaires et au niveau universitaire?

Donc, jeune Franco-ontarien, prends la relève de tes prédécesseurs et marche de l'avant!

This year the Junior Flyers finished the season tied in second place with 3 wins, 2 losses, and three ties. But unfortunately, we lost to Levaack in the semi-finals by scores of 5-3 and 7-3. We had the best team in the league, but lack of scoring was our downfall.

Next season looks quite promising since we will have seven players returning, and since we may start competing against the Sudbury schools. There is also a possibility that Chelmsford may have a senior hockey team if the proposed arena is built in Chelmsford.

LA TUTTE WRESTLING

The Chelmsford High School wrestling team has been in existence 2½ years. The students' time and hard work had results this year.

In the Laurentian Invitational tournament Chelmsford came 4th behind three of the top teams in Ont. Sturgeon Falls hosted their annual tournament and Chelmsford placed second ahead of a strong Kirkland Lake team.

Our greatest victory came on January 21st when Chelmsford captured the Sudbury and Dist. Wrestling Championships. Individual Champions were: Brian Kanola, Denis St. Onge, Jean-Noel St. Onge, Ed Seguin, Gerald Dubois, Claude Bacon and Len Therien.

March 1st the N.O.S.S.A. Wrestling Championships were held at Laurentian University. Our wrestling team did excellent coming a close second to the powerful Sturgeon Falls team. Sturgeon Falls came second in all Ontario comp. This indicates how strong Chelmsford is becoming as a wrestling school. Our school can boast of 3 individual N.O.S.S.A. Champions. Brian Kanola, Ed Seguin, and Claude Bacon.

At all Ontario competition Chelmsford sent an 8 member team: Brian Kanola, Dan Remmerswaal, Eric Proudfoot, Denis St. Onge, Jean-Noel St. Onge, Ed Seguin, Louis Lapointe and Claude Bacon. To end a successful year, Ed Seguin placed 5th in all Ontario competitions at 148 lbs.

Meeting strong competition from the Sault Ste. Marie schools they nevertheless came third out of six schools. Congratulations are extended the every individual member of the team for their fine work.

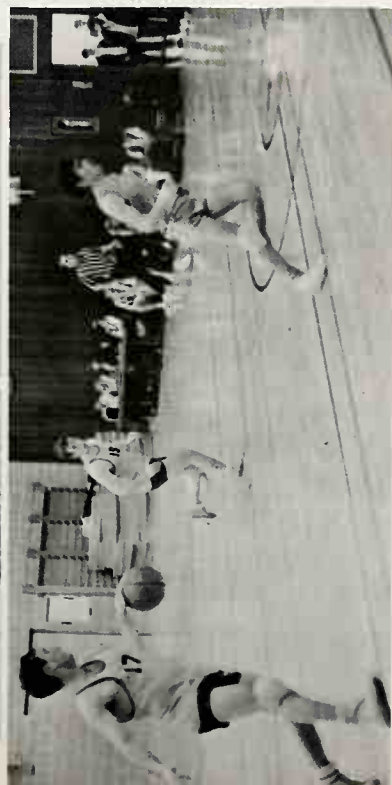

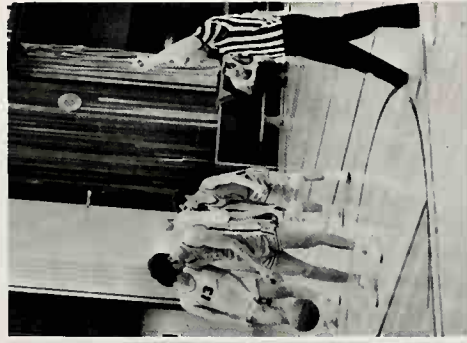

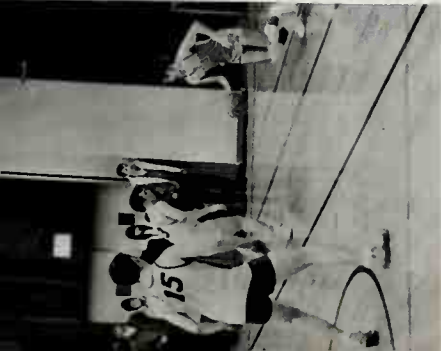

SR. BASKETBALL

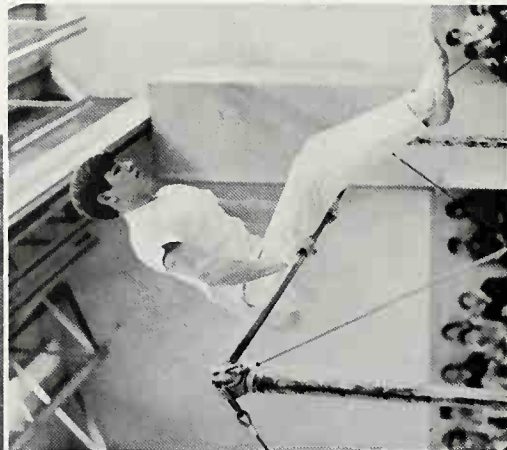

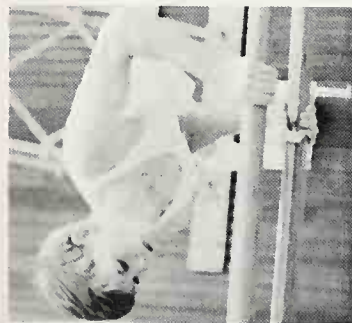

This year's version of the Senior boys basketball team was much more balanced over last year's first place team. This team was made up of many young players and the future for senior ball here appears promising. A total of 14 games was played with Chelmsford winning 11 of these for third place finish. Our 3 losses were near the beginning of the season and from Christmas on the team won all of it's remaining games, including a one day play-off tournament to capture the Nickel District Championship. Top scorers on this years team were captain Richard Chicoine 195 points, Gary Couillard 191 points and Mike Demers 137. Gilbert Dureau and Kan Wazny our strong rebounders round out the starting 5. The district championship entitled the team to enter NOSSA competition in Sault Ste. Marie this year. The competition was keen and our boys were impressive in all 3 games.

WORDS OF THE WISE

"Ideas go booming through the world louder than canons. Thoughts are mightier than armies. Principles have achieved more victories than horsemen and chariots."

(Emerson)

"How happy a person is depends upon the depth of his gratitude. You will notice at once that the unhappy person has little gratitude toward life, other people and God."

(John Miller)

"Man masters nature not by force but understanding. This is why science has succeeded where magic failed: because it has looked for no spell to cast on nature."

(Jacob Bronowski)

"There is no good in arguing with the inevitable; the only argument available with an east wind is to put on your overcoat."

(James Russell Lowell)

"Not to be covetous is money in your purse; not to be eager to buy is income."

(Cicero)

"As the Greek said, 'Many men know how to flatter, few know not to praise.'"

(Wendell Phillips.)

"I will study and get ready and perhaps my chance will come."

(Abraham Lincoln)

ADOLESCENCE - FAIT DE MATHEMATIQUES

Pourquoi ce titre? Eh bien, je vais m'expliquer. Comme en Mathématiques, sujet favori de tous les élèves, l'adolescence est une équation. Si nous cherchons ce MOT dans le "Petit Dictionnaire de la Langue Française", tout ce qu'il nous présente comme définition est le synonyme "JEUNESSE". J'aimerais vous faire connaître ma définition personnelle: ADOLESCENCE = JOIES ET SOUCIS. Comme vous le savez tous, la jeunesse est l'âge entre l'enfance et l'âge viril. Cette période de temps commence à treize ans et se termine à dix-neuf ans. Durant ce temps, une personne est dite ADOLESCENTE.

Pendant ces années, comme pendant toutes les autres années de notre vie, il y a des joies, des soucis, des mécontentements et des malchances qui se présentent. Les jeunes ont parfois beaucoup de difficultés à s'entendre avec les adultes. Ils n'ont pas toujours les mêmes goûts, les mêmes idées, les mêmes points de vue. Aussi, ces enfants, oh! pardon, je crois que ceux-ci ne désirent pas être appelés "enfants", mais plutôt, ces jeunes adultes, ne veulent pas toujours accepter les conseils qui leur sont confiés par leurs parents ou bien par leurs aînés.

Cependant, pour ces jeunes-ci, il n'y a pas seulement des désavantages, mais aussi des avantages. Ils reçoivent encore le grand amour de leurs parents, qui leur fournissent un foyer confortable. Ils n'ont pas encore de grandes responsabilités auxquelles ils doivent y attacher beaucoup de leur temps précieux. Ils n'ont pas à se mordre les pouces, c'est-à-dire s'inquiéter au sujet de leur vieillesse, car ils savent qu'ils ont encore un grand chemin à poursuivre avant d'arriver au bout de leur câble.

Si on établissait un point d'égalité entre les joies et les soucis d'un adolescent du 20^{ième} siècle, les * * ? * * dépasseraient les * * ? * * par plusieurs fois. Jugez-en bien à propos, et remplissez les tirets selon votre cas.

WHY WAS I BORN?

Why on earth was I born,
Yet only to be torn
From unexisting happiness
And dropped into a world of loneliness?

Today, why am I here,
When tomorrow I'll walk in fear
Of every day's common miseries
And retrieve with in myself from reality?

Why am I living,
Why am I a being
When I loathe life
And see about me nothing but strife?

Life is a flower, so I am told,
A story which unfolds
To every man's own imagination
But who will answer my question?

A cause de la rose, l'épine est

aussi arrosée

Eclatante beauté! Superbe parfum! Fleur sauvage!

Au plus cruel des hommes, tu fais jaillir des pleurs. Rose, tu fais rire le plus triste et misérable de nos enfants. Mais,
Rose que je te plains!

"Et, rose, elle a vécu ce que vivent les roses:

L'espace d'un matin!"

Oui, tu vis à la lumière accueillante du soleil matinal. A l'eau du ruisseau tu te liaignes les pieds. Mais au coucher du soleil tu te penches la tête et tu meurs. Sois contente. La mémoire de ta beauté vivra toujours. . . .

Rose, ne te chagrine pas
parce que tu n'es plus, et qu'Epine est encore avec nous. C'est ton amie. De tout danger humain Epine a préservée ta beauté délicate. Ne sois pas désireuse de son destin.

A cause de toi, Epine
est arrosée. En retour, Epine te protège et tu peux maintenant vivre à l'espace d'un matin."

Care to see what life has been
Care to pause & chat with me
Come along, along with me
I'll wait here for you.

Gladly I will hear your song
Lend an ear to all your woes
Leave your sadness in the past
Pain is over now.

Here we find the answers
The truth of existence
Here we find the answers
So simple, so true.

Here we find the answers
The goals of persistence
Here we find the answers
The beauty of you.

And we find that all the trouble
Just makes every gladness double.

For we are up so high
For we are up so high

"Un homme est tari dans la mesure où il n'existe plus pour lui d'être ou de chose irremplaçables"

J'avance d'un pas précipité vers ce lieu qui m'attire et la neige durcie crie sous mes pas cruels. En vain je poursuis cette enfant qui me fuit, cette enfant que je fus.

Comme par révérence, je ralentis ma marche....

Pas à pas, j'approche ce paradis d'autrefois et nos "gardes vaillants" ne sont plus que de minces bouleaux grelottants dans le froid. La "vieille fille du nord," traître qu'elle est, a volé tous nos cris enfantins de joie. Tout est si banal, si différent. Même la neige, que je foule à mes pieds m'est froide, captive du temps. Une à une des sculptures de souvenirs me reviennent: des figures à sourires gelés, des actions figées, des mouvements suspendus dans un espace vide de temps. Et comme si cette neige épaisse pouvait être réduite par la chaleur d'une présence, ces paroles de St-Denys-Garneau me reviennent pour me hanter, pour augmenter mon mal:

"Et Dieu sait que vous repartirez

Comme vous êtes venus

Et je ne vous reconnaitrai plus."

Non, je ne vous recommandais plus, joies de mon enfance car vous n'êtes plus que de petits cubes de glace dans mon hiver et votre chaleur d'autrefois ne peut émaner de vos fermes maintenant si bizarres. Vous étiez l'essence des choses irremplaçables et à cause de votre départ, je suis tarie de tout sens, de tout pouvoir d'être. L'enfance, la joie.... ça se préserve, ça ne se trouve pas; quand on les perd, on les perd à jamais.

"Je ne serai peut-être pas plus seul

Mais la vallée sera déserte

Et qui me parlera de vous?"

Lucille Pilon

La vie...

Les yeux bandés, les mains et les pieds liés, je suis enveloppé de noirceur.

J'éprouve une nostalgie de vivre! Pourquoi suis-je ici? Quel est mon rôle sur cette terre hostile, barbare, impitoyable, où l'on m'a forcé d'y entrer? Mon unique résistance, c'est une petite cervelle d'enfant.

De cet obscurité, aucun éclat de soleil ne surgit. Et ranger à ce nouveau mode d'existence, la vie, l'enfant victime de l'homme, n'y peut rien.

Où règne cet amour dont on me parle? J'aspire vers lui et j'en ai besoin. Pourquoi se réfugit-il dans le fond de vos coeurs gonflant de peur du du déficit que lui lance l'humanité entière.

Où pourrais-je trouver cette personne qui veut m'aimer. Cet être altruiste qui oublie le monde et ses préjugés, les cruautés d'une réputation vite variée le commérage.

Où chercher cet être qui peut combler ma soif de vivre, cet être sincèrement gaie, foncièrement dévoué.

Pour vivre, pour vivre heureux, j'ai droit à un tel amitié!... Mais, hélas, à quoi bon de nous aventurer dans le chaos de l'humanité si nous ne sommes que deux. Notre petite barque aurait vite de sombrer dans l'océan tempestueux des âges.

Au Vietnam, on tue l'innocent, laisse périr le blessé; douleurs cruelles dont les hommes prétendent vouloir l'absolution!

Les noirs veulent l'égalité. Non pas maîtriser les clats selon leurs besoins, mais vivre comme les blancs et exercer leurs divers talents. La race présumée supérieur, leur refuse ce droit foncier....

Je vie, mais je ne suis pas jeureuse; je suis triste.

Subconsciemment les gens font allusion à cette théorie de la bonne personne car tous sont des individus et à cause des ingrats et des êtres vicieux, nous devons agir comme eux pour protéger cette vie.

C'est un monde corrompue qui se révèle à mes yeux adultes.

C, est un drogue néfaste, une amertume morbide que cette humanité. Il fait sombre.....

Je ne voie rien! Nous sommes frères?... mais nous demeurons seuls! J'ai peur... mais je ne dis rien! Je pleurs... mais je cache mes larmes! Je t'AIME..... Mais tu ne m'écoute pas!

Alors vie, je te HAIE.

WORDS OF THE WISE

Si j 'étais jeune. . . .

Si j 'étais jeune encore. . . .
Comme une fleur nouvellement née,
Si je pouvais recommencer ma vie,
Je saurais comment bien la compléter.

Si j 'étais jeune encore. . . .
Comme cette jeune fillette très sage
Si j 'étais jeune encore,
Je ne me laisserais pas ennuyer.

Oui, si j 'étais jeune encore. . . .
Belle et pure comme toi,
Je ferais tout pendant ma jeunesse
Et je ne me laisserais pas encombrer par la vieillesse.

Mais, maintenant tu me vois pour moi-même
Vieille, seule et malade,
Oui, si j 'étais jeune encore. . . .
Mais, maintenant, je me retire. . . .

SAXF

Bonjour Printemps

Les oiseaux nous reviennent
Assis dans leurs nids en chantant
Des chants dont ils se souviennent
C'est le printemps, je suis contente.

La terre est en gloire
Car naissantes sont les fleurs
Le terrain se réjouit de toutes les couleurs
Tout est beau, rien n'est noir.

Dieu, de nouveau a créé,
Les fleurs s'épanouissent
Tous, hommes et enfants, se réjouissent
C'est le printemps, je veux aimer!

JEUNESSE MUSICALE

de gauche à droit: M. Millette, Mlle Lise Bonneville et M. John Linnl.

L'après-midi du 8 Novembre 1968, à l'école polyvalente de Chelmsford, un événement historique se déroula.
Pour la première fois dans l'histoire de l'Ontario, un récital fut donné pendant les heures de classes aux élèves pour leur montrer ce que sont les jeunes musiciens.
Les élèves applaudirent M. Linnl, un brillant pianiste, lorsqu'il fit son entrée en scène. Mlle Bonneville interprétait les compositions jouées par M. Linnl. Le tout fait un succès.

ELECTIONS

With the departure of vice-president Bob Elms, a place was left vacant on the student council. Three fine students Gord Erion, Jim Johnstone and Germain St. Amour ran for vice-president. The three were all gentlemen about the affair. The student body was divided into three camps and in the outcome our new man was Germain.

The perfect example of before and after balloting.

STRATFORD TRIP

Children must play.

Everyone crowded into the bus and we were off to the Stratford festival. The kids enjoyed themselves tremendously and some even found time to go apple snitching.

Smile you're on candid camera.

To admire or to be admired, that's the hangup!

Ho Hum!
Those kids.

Cool it fans.

To sit and demand or to try and understand, that's the hang-up!

A friendly chat before the show.

Our pretty junior misses

The captain and her brood.

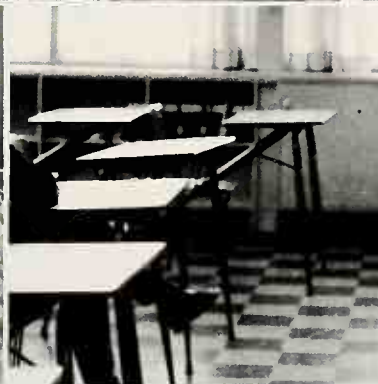

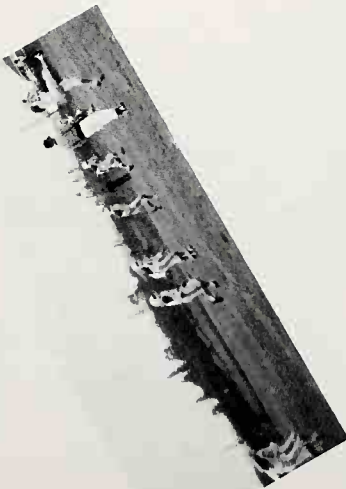

Kept the audience in awe while cheering and performing in between periods.

A big thanks to the girls who devoted their time and effort to supply our school some spirit.
